We are looking for a dynamic and highly effective Deputy Headteacher for initially one year (with scope to extend for a successful applicant) to join our child centred outstanding nursery school. Your post will involve the following responsibilities:

- Teaching up to 0.5% across the school
- School SENCo
- Deputy Headteacher: responsible for assessment across the school

Moss Hall Nursery School is a popular school; the children come from a rich variety of cultural backgrounds and they love to learn. The school is committed to a child centred pedagogy where children are engaged in rich and motivating learning experiences. Moss Hall Nursery School is set in a spacious Victorian building with an extensive, well-resourced outdoor learning environment and the staff team are experienced, enthusiastic and committed to providing an environment which supports active and independent learning. Close links with the adjoining infant and junior schools are maintained.

Applicants should:

- Be highly organised, inspiring, passionate and committed to providing high quality learning opportunities in an inclusive environment
- Have high levels of knowledge about effective child-centred pedagogy
- Be committed to ensuring the best outcomes for children and staff
- Be knowledgeable and experienced in managing a staff team and in delivering training across the school

We can offer you:

- A school which puts the interests of the children and their families first in all that we do
- A happy working environment with a supportive and committed team of staff
- An opportunity to develop professionally
- Children who are enthusiastic and eager to learn
- A school that values creative and dynamic individuals and supports a cross curricular and creative learning approach
- Close partnership working with parents/carers
