Declaration of criminal offences

Please read the following notes carefully

You must inform us of any offences, convictions, cautions, and bindovers or of any court cases that you have pending. Under the provision of The Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974, some job applicants do not have to disclose information on certain convictions after a set period of time, as they become 'spent' (see table below).

The Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 applies to offences where a custodial sentence in prison (or detention in a young offenders institution) of less than 30 months was imposed. It is the sentence imposed by a court that counts (even if a suspended sentence), not the time spent in custody. Any prison sentence greater than 30 months never becomes 'spent'.

For some jobs, all convictions must be declared and can never be considered 'spent'. For more information, please see the section below entitled 'exemptions' and information on the person specification. Failure to declare may result in the job offer being withdrawn.

1. Rehabilitation periods

Sentence	Time elapsed since conviction
Absolute Discharge	6 months
Borstal/Youth Custody	7 years
Care or Supervision order	1 year or until order expires (whichever is the longest)
Detention Centre	3 years
Fine or other sentence for which the Act does not specify a different rehabilitation period	5 years*
Hospital order (with or without a restriction order)	5 years, or 2 years after the order expires
Imprisonment or youth custody sentence of less than 6 months	7 years*
Imprisonment or youth custody sentence of over 6 months but not more than 2 ½ years	10 years*
Order for custody in a remand home, approved school order or an attendance centre order	1 year after order expires
Probation order, conditional discharge or bound over	1 year or until order expires (whichever is the longest)

* The above times are halved if the offender was under 18 when the offence was committed.
